Foreword

A CENTURY ago, in 1849, hundreds of adventurous souls sought the "Golden Paradise". These men were uncertain but hopeful—guided by ambition and dreams. Now, one hundred years later, the members of the Class of 1949 seek their "Golden Paradise" in all walks of life, guided by these same forces.

It has been the pleasant duty of the Yearbook staff to preserve the gold of memory in the form of our class yearbook. In time the gold may lose some of its luster. Consequently, if you turn these pages with unsympathetic fingers, you may conclude that it is frivolous and amateurish. On the other hand, if you are among the fortunate who possess the elixir of memory, you will find our book shining brightly with the energy of life.

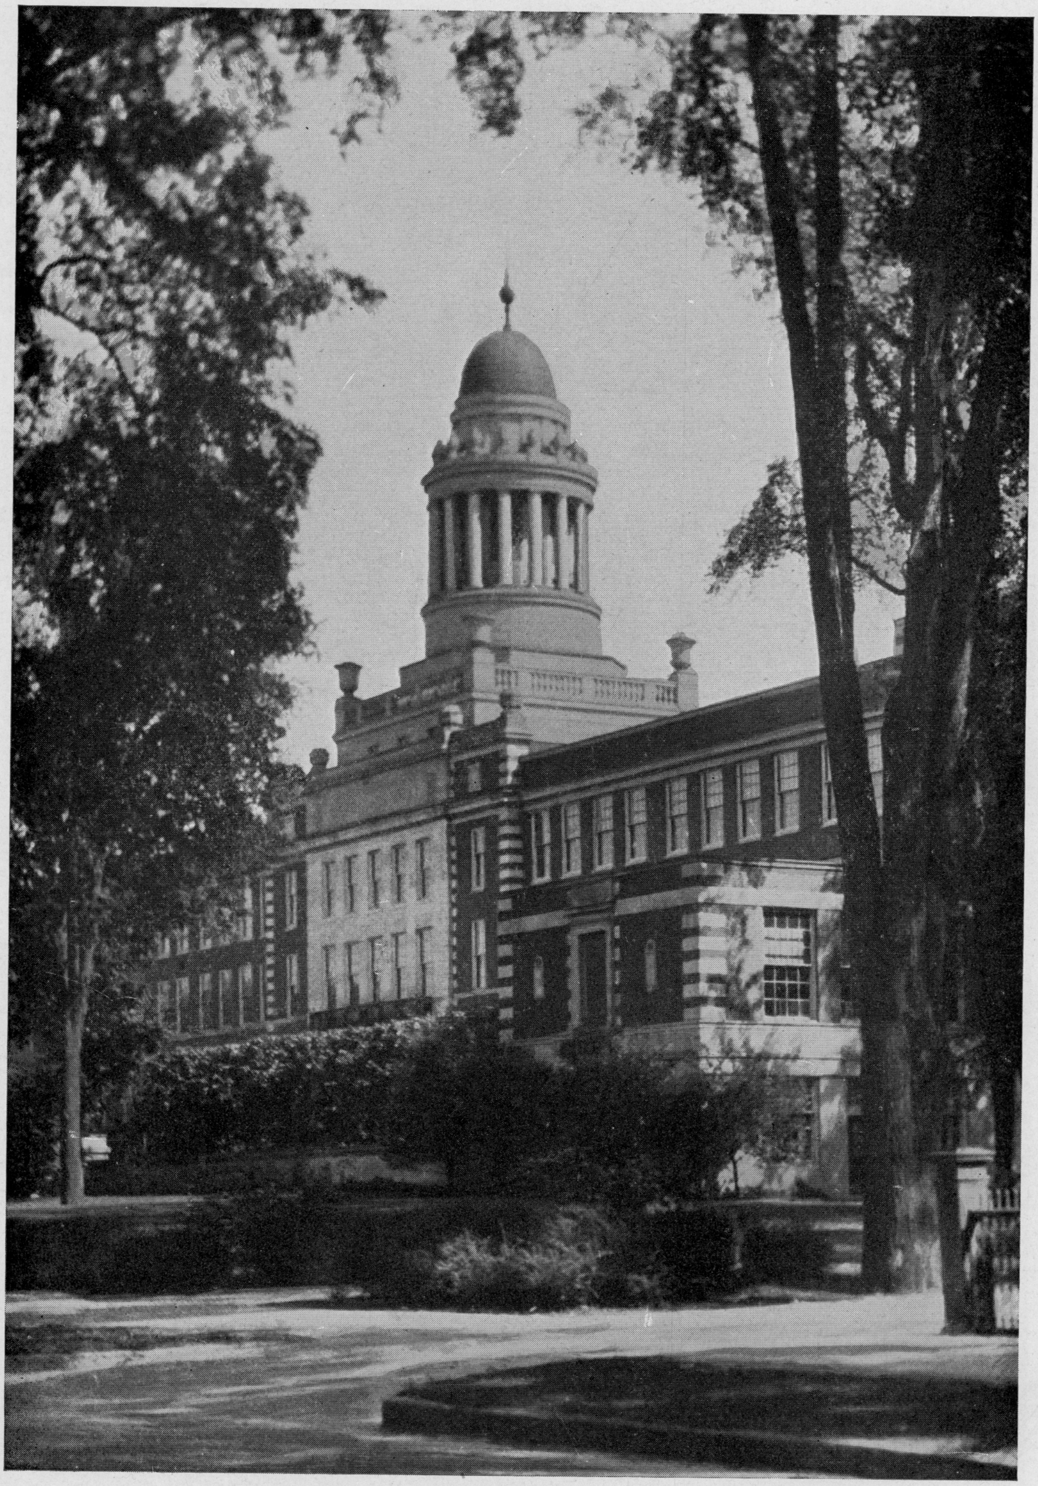

MISS HÉLÈNE MILLET
Class Adviser

Dedication

TO Miss Hélène Millet, our class adviser and counselor, the Class of 1949 dedicates this yearbook. Genuine gratitude can be expressed by neither word nor deed, and the greatest debts that we owe we must allow to stand unpaid. However, as slight evidence of its sincere appreciation and as a feeble expression of its heartfelt gratitude, the Class of 1949 cedes first place in its book to Miss Millet, who has unselfishly labored to promote our interests, and who has sought in return no other reward than our progress and ultimate success.

FACULTY

MR. ROY M. STROUT
Principal

The Class of 1949 wishes to extend its sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks to Mr. Strout for his wise leadership and his keen understanding of the problems which we have encountered in our three years at Pittsfield High School.

MISS NELLIE J. PARKER
Dean of Girls

We shall long remember with true gratitude the services and loyal devotion which Miss Parker has rendered our class. Although she administered discipline when it was necessary, her ever gracious manner has won both our love and respect

Nellie J. Parker

MR. JOHN F. MORAN
Assistant Superintendent of Schools
and Vice Principal

MR. HAROLD HENNESSEY
Vice Principal

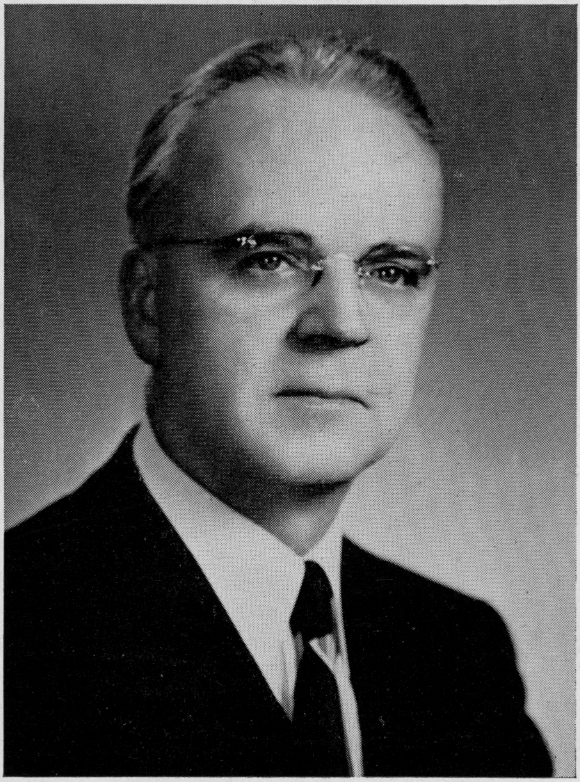

DR. EDWARD VAN DUSEN

MISS HÉLÈNE MILLET
Girls' Counselor

Miss Millet's sound advice has guided well the girls of 1949 through their scholastic difficulties.

MR. WALTER REAGAN
Boys' Counselor

Mr. Reagan has been a wise and helpful counselor to our class.

AROUND THE CLOCK

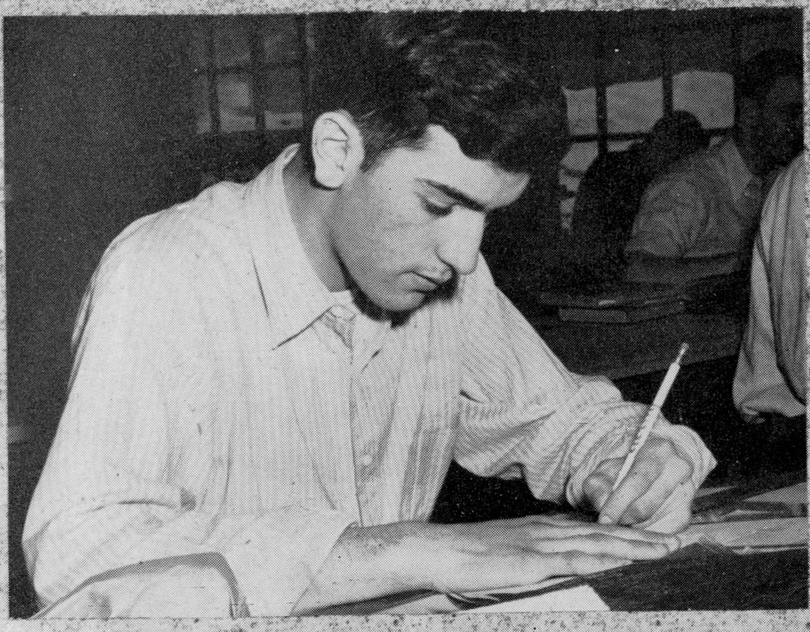

AT P.H.S.

SENIOR MATH
Mr. Massimiano initiates his class into all angles of the pyramid.

CHEMISTRY
Hold on to your hats as our chemists take over the laboratory.

DRAFTING
The plans on the drafting board may be the schools of tomorrow.

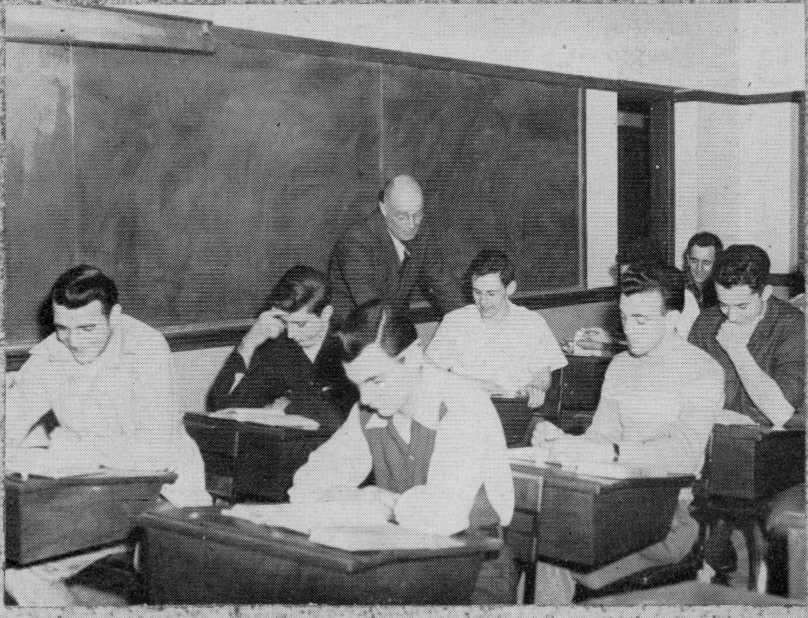

ENGLISH

"The play's the thing," says Horace Williams as the class studies "Hamlet".

HISTORY

History may be the "lengthened shadow of one man", but here it's a woman—the one in the background.

ECONOMICS

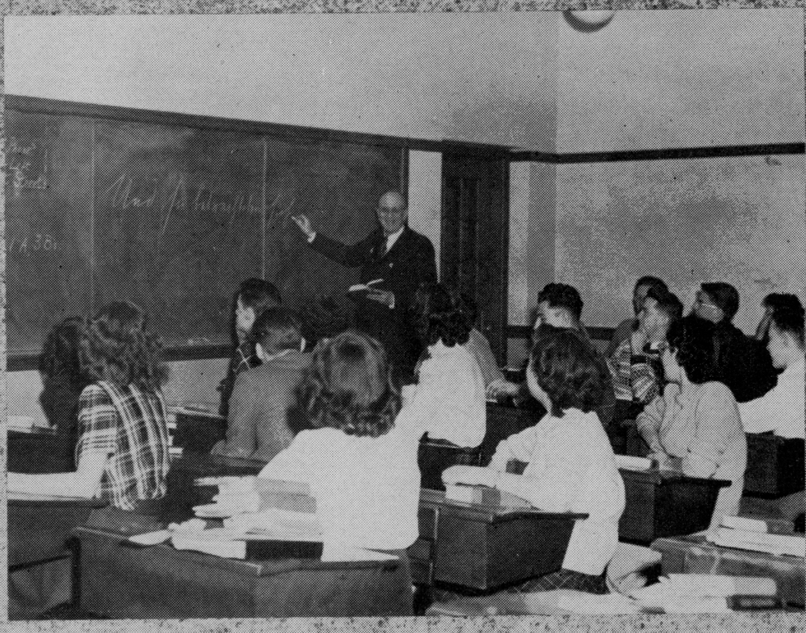

"Problems of Democracy" are but minor difficulties to Mr. Maloney's economics class.

LATIN
Intellectuals of '49 trace the course of Aeneas to Italy and the Lavinian shore.

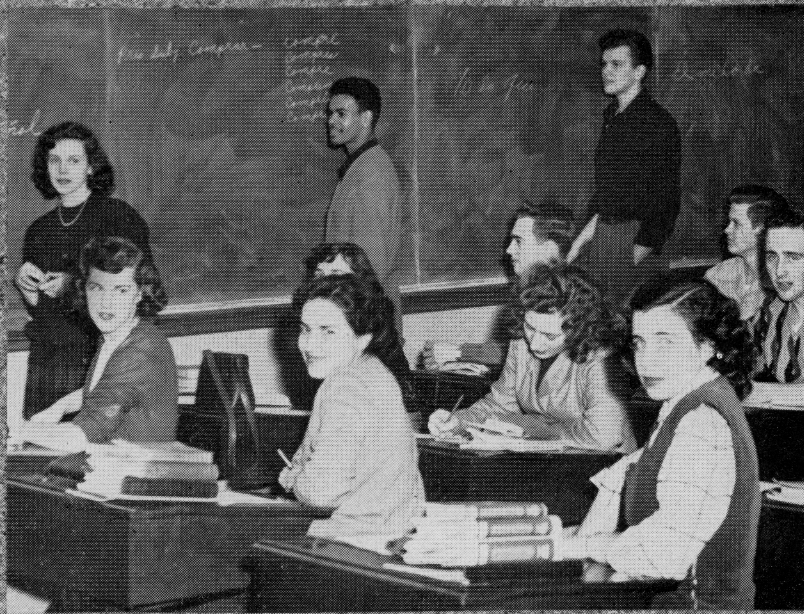

ITALIAN
Seniors strive to master the musical cadence of Italian speech.

GERMAN
The class listens intently as Herr Innis explains the intricacies of the German tongue.

SPANISH
Our '49ers are struggling with the "South American way."

OFFICE PRACTICE
Fingertip control will facilitate the activities of the busy office-worker.

TYPING
Speed and accuracy are the goals of these industrious Typists.

LIBRARY
A quiet spot for the acquisition of knowledge.

MUSIC
*"The drums go bang, and the cymbals clang,
And the horns, they blaze away."*

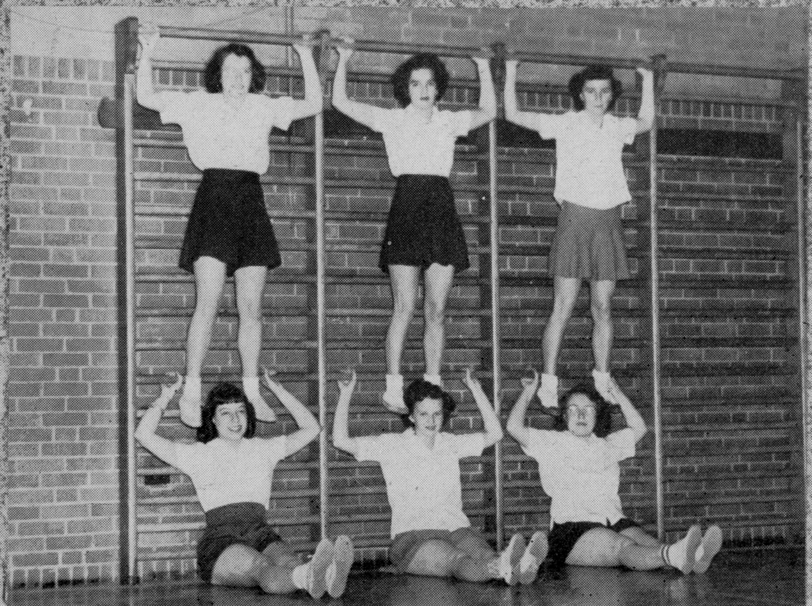

ART
Our artist develops her natural talent under Mr. Curtin's guidance.

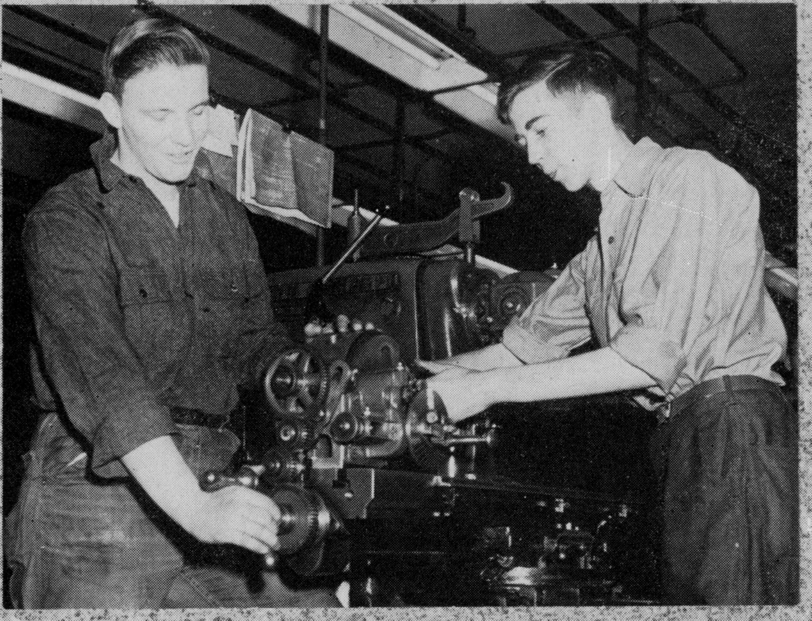

SEWING
"Buttons and bows" for milady's spring clothes.

COOKING
These culinary artists find the true way to a man's heart.

GIRLS' GYM
Here is how the girls develop poise and good posture.

MACHINE SHOP
The boys learn what makes the wheels go 'round.

MACHINE SHOP
Men and machines to keep our industrial world humming.

SHEET METAL
Sheet metal workers display their own mettle.

PRINTING

The press—a greater power today than ever before in the world's history.

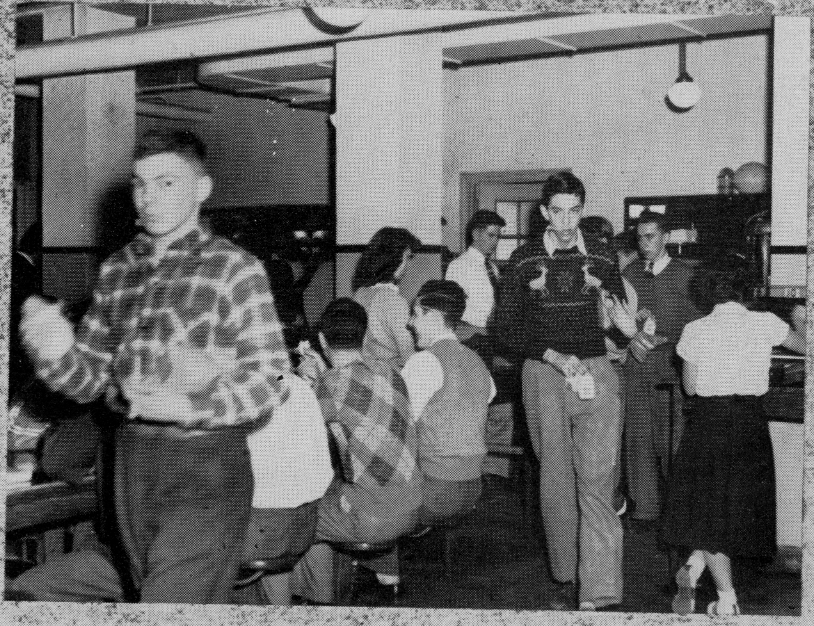

BOYS' GYM

A life in the balance. Strength, poise, and coordination will decide.

CAFETERIA

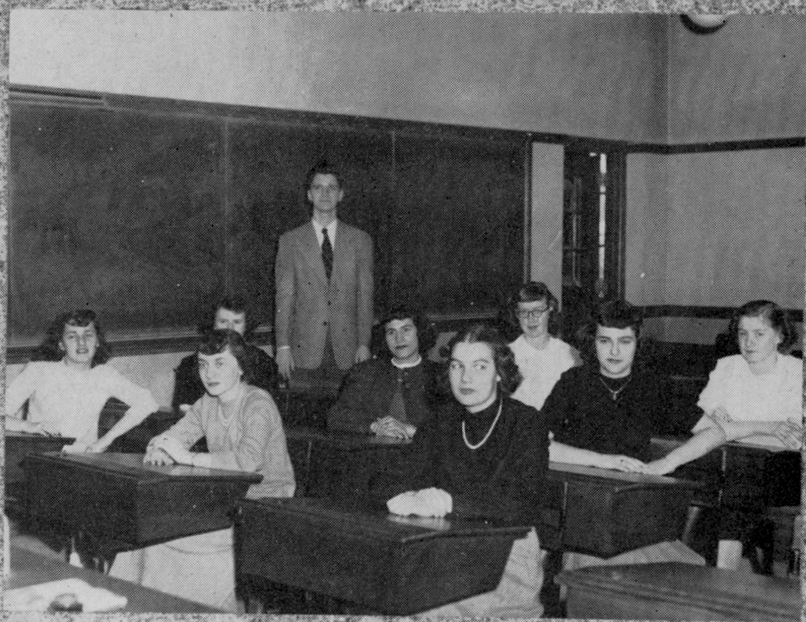

One of the most important and most enjoyed of student activities—eating.

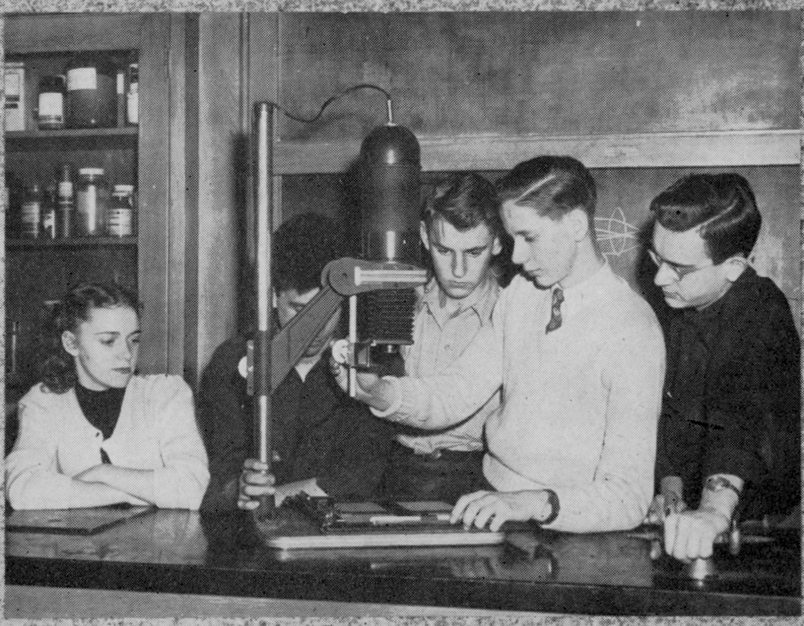

THE STUDENT'S PEN

The staff completes its work before the presses roll.

THE MOTION PICTURE CLUB

Its aim—an intelligent evaluation of a leisure-time activity.

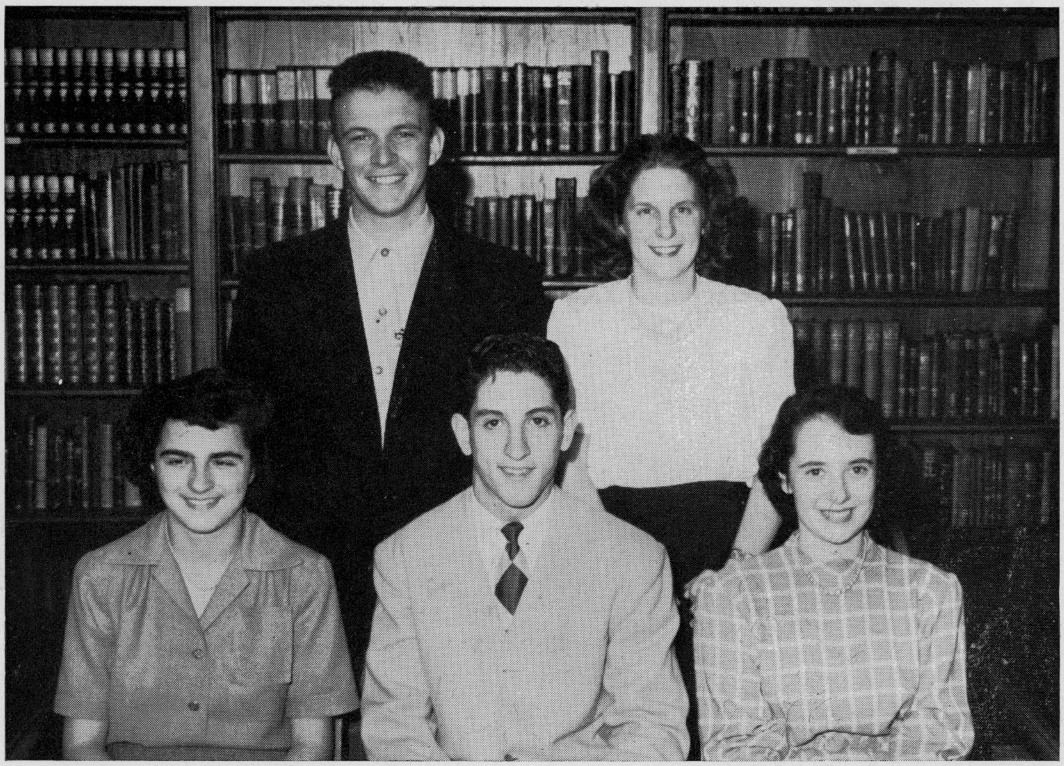

CAMERA CLUB

'49ers prepare to give Ewing-Galloway a little competition.

Alma Mater Song

Words by Esther Kierstead '38 and Friend Kierstead '39
Tune: "All Through The Night"

Guardian elm trees cast their shadows
O'er thy ivied walls;
Sons and daughters ever loyal
Throng thy honored halls.
Pittsfield High School, Pittsfield High School,
Alma Mater dear,
Help us to preserve thy honor
Through each coming year.

Great has been thy former record,
Greater will it be,
As the future generations
Sing their praise to thee.
Proud are we who through thy portals
Into life do pass;
Help us ever to be worthy,
Each and every class.

The History of the Class of 1949

Sophomore Year, 1946-1947

September 8—School opens. "Ah, Sweet Misery of Life."
October 7—First S.A.S. Assembly (Sit and Suffer).
October 12—Columbus has his day. Rub-a-dub-dub, men in three tubs.
November 5—Election Day—Happy Holiday.
November 11—Armistice Day—Won against St. Joseph's 28 to 0 (Naturally!)
November 14—Program in observance of Education Week. "I'm glad to meetcha, teacha."
November 28—Stuffed turkey (stuffed us!)
December 3—Mr. Haydn Mason presented a colored film on the Housatonic River (Can they purify that stuff?)
December 13—George Caraker talked on the Atomic Bomb. The subject was dropped—on Hiroshima.
December 20—Christmas Assembly—No school till next year!
December 25—Call the chimney sweep! Santa's stuck in the chimney.
January 1—We resolve not to do any more homework.
January 6—Now's our chance to put our resolution to work.
January 7—Busy picking up pieces of resolutions.
February 6—Ho, hum—very dull day.
February 12—H.M.S. Pinafore ship sighted; all delighted.
February 13—Ship still here; give a cheer.
February 14—Every cupid has his day.
March 12—Bert Harwell, bird imitator (Tweet, tweet).
March 17—All the wild Irish rose to the occasion.
March 24—Career conferences. We all decide to be undertakers—there are always customers.
April 1—He's no April fool—he's a fool all the time.
April 15—Several planes crash-landed on the school lawn—Over! (Paper, that is!)
May 9—Gym Exhibition. Golly whiz! what muscles!
May 16—Girls' Glee Club Concert. Many beautiful songs . . . many . . . girls!
June 6—Band Concert (ear muffs, please.)
June 15—Class Day for the Class of '47. Seniors depart. Boo-hoo!
June 24—We depart too. Rah—Rah!

Class 1949

Junior Year, 1947-1948

September 3—First day of school again. Ain't it wunnerful?

September 6—Election of home room representatives. Representation without taxation is O. K.

October 12—Columbus Day. In 1492 Columbus sailed the ocean blue, and now in 1947 (Can't find anything to rhyme with seven).

October 16—First S.A.S. assembly. Mr. Van Haitsma discussed choosing careers. "Let's Face It Now." (Pretty horrible, isn't it?)

October 31—Halloween—Same old faces!

November 11—Armistice Day (Football game against St. Joe. The score 27-0.) It happens every year!

November 13—Warren Preble installed as President of the Student Council.

November 18—The 1949 class was instructed on nomination of officers at an assembly after school. No dirty politics.

December 4—An assembly—Dr. F. Arnold Young spoke on the topic, "Manners for Minors." Manners for Minors. (John L. Lewis.)

December 9—An assembly—A lecture and movie on "The Conquest of Mt. McKinley." Student comment—"After that climb, I'm winded."

December 10—Junior Class elections. No, Paul, kissing all the girls won't help any.

December 11—Anthony Sacchetti was elected president.

January 9—Good Government Day observed by an assembly. Everyone was on his good behavior—Mayor Capeless and Superintendent of Schools Edward J. Russell, were our guests.

January 21—The Charm Quartet . . and were they charming!

January 30—First meeting of Junior Council.

February 12—First night of "The Mikado." 'Tis stupendous! Colossal! Marvelous! We might add, it is quite good.

February 13—And it's even better tonight. Congratulations to Mr. Gorman for giving us a great operetta.

February 14—Roses are red; violets are blue;
You better run, boys—they're after you.

February 17—An Assembly—Marguerite Shoemaker's talk, "Deep Sea Divers." Dangerous but exciting!

February 18—Ramshaw, the Falcon, showed off his well-trained master, Charles Knight of England.

March 12—Army Band visited P. H. S. Drummer boys!

March—Nutchuk (an Eskimo) on "Return From the Smoky Sea." No, Eddie, he isn't a nutty woodchuck!

April 1—Orchestra Concert. Tell us, what has Koussevitsky got on Mr. Gorman? What has the Boston Symphony got on our orchestra? Oh! !

April 21—The Junior Prom is only a month away.

May 7—The suspense is terrible! Only two more weeks until the Junior Prom and Sammy Vincent's orchestra.

May 14—Glee Club concert. Boys included this year.

May 21—At last! It's here! What a night! Exquisite! The finest Prom ever!

May 31—No school—Memorial Day.

June 1—Today there is school!

June 4—Band concert, and the drums go bang, and the cymbals clang, and the horns do blaze away.

June 5—No school today. (It's Saturday.)

June 15—Class Day (Class of 1948.)

June 17—Senior Prom (Class of 1948). Can Juniors go, too?

June 23—At last we're SENIORS!

Senior Year, 1948-1949

September 6—We observe Labor Day—in anticipation of a laborious year.

September 16—"So You Don't Like Poetry?" (Right Oh!)

September 27—Richard Carradine, Shakespearian Actor—Yeah! I thought I had my troubles, and then I hears about this guy Hamlet, wow!

September—Senior Elections.

October 12—Columbus Day—He was looking for the riches of India, but—er-ah but instead-uh—mmmmm gosh! I've forgotten the end of the story.

October 20—Conversation Concert, Donald Scott Morrison—piano (also harpsichord) (man of many faces.)

October 25—Well, goody, goody! Harry came through;

October 26—Goody, goody, gumdrops, Dewey came, too.

October 31—No—Not on Mr. Lynch's porch! ! Oh! me! Mr. Innis's favorite gate. Oh well, boys will be boys, especially on Hallowe'en.

November 2—Nothing to do today but sit and wait for the radio to announce Mr. Dewey's victory. And did we wait !

November 11—Our annual victory over St. Joe.

November 17—Is it a pork chop? Is it a pin cushion?
Is it an atom bomb? No. It's a shmoo!

November 25-29—Thanksgiving vacation!

December 7—It's been seven years since the Japs attacked us at Pearl Harbor.

December 15—Have you got your class ring? They're pretty nice, huh?

December 17—Today was Bundle Day. We brought bundles to school instead of homework. It was a great success.

December 23—Start of Christmas vacation!

December 25—Merry Christmas!

December 30-31—Flood! Highest in years. Too bad it's vacation.

January 3—School again—the first time since 1948.

January 20—Many students burned the midnight oil—writing essays. Well, whadaya know? It's 2.30 a. m.

January 21—Maplewood Essays due.

February 2—Groundhog Day—Oh phooey—the sun's out!

February 10—The pirates with their hearts so cold
Capture all the maidens fair;
The policemen, trembling in their boots,
Advance upon the pirates' lair.

February 11—When everyone meets on the stage
The pirates win the fight.
A complicated story—true—
But in the end all turns out right.

February 14—How romantic! Democracy essays due on Valentine's Day.

February 19-27—Winter vacation! Get out your sleds, skates and your skis.
It's time to do just as you please.

March 4—Springfield College Gym Exhibition in gym—St. Luke's Fashion Show in auditorium.
Downstairs—the very essence of masculine pulchritude;
Upstairs—the very essence of feminine pulchritude.

March 8—Basketball tournament in Springfield. (Lost by one measly point!)

March—The Pen wins first place at Columbia; John Coughlin ('49) wins third place in the State Legion Oratorical Contest. Are we going places!

March 17—Those who weren't green with Irish, were green with envy.

March 18—Orchestra Concert—almost as good as the Boston Pops.

March 20—First day of spring!

Spring, spring is in the air;
Fever starts and you get nowhere.

March 24—It must be spring. Water pistols ("the fountain of youth") to the left of us; water pistols to the right of us!

April 1—All Fool's Day! 'Nuff said!

April 15—Easter vacation starts!

April 17—Easter Sunday

It's Easter. The men are all wearing their spats,
And all the ladies brand new hats;
The flowers—the weather—everything fine.
Dress up pretty and have a good time!

April 25—Our last vacation is over.

April 29—Junior Prom—Sure "Pete", give them a break. Seniors can go, too.

May 6—Ho-hum—another dull day!

May 8—Mother's Day

For all your sacrifices and your encouraging words, for all your help—we salute you "Mom".

May 30—Memorial Day. P. H. S. Band marches in parade in honor of war dead.

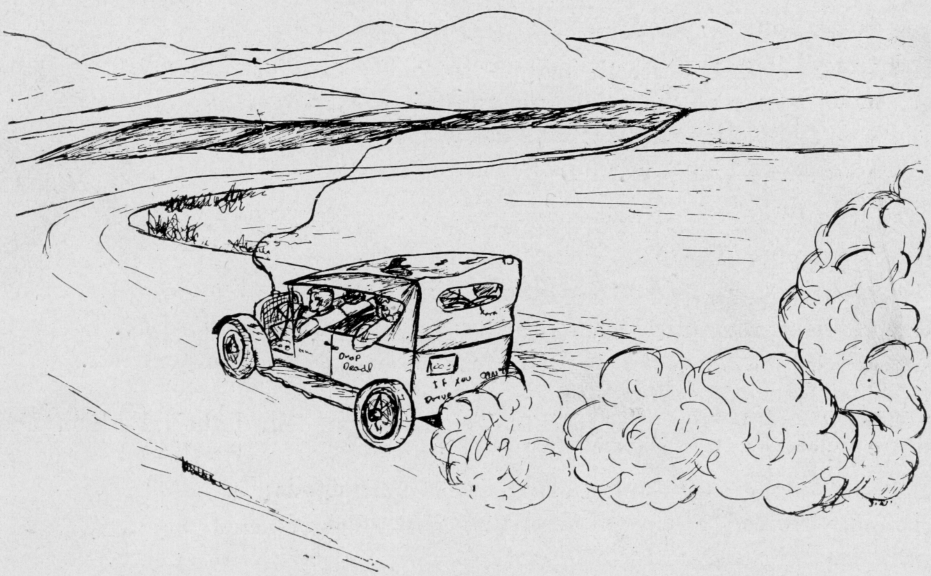

June 30—Band Concert! What rhythm!

June 4—In fifteen more days we're tossed out into the cold, cruel world.

June 13—Class Day. Oh, what lucky Seniors, we look sharp in our caps and gowns!

June 15—Senior Prom. A wonderful time had by all. It was worth waiting twelve years for this gala event.

June 19—Graduation! We bid a fond farewell.

Last Will and Testament of the '49ers

WE, the '49ers, being of sound (?) mind (?) and body, and having at our disposal various nuggets and knick-knacks picked up during our wanderings about the barren wastes of Pittsfield and gleaned from the sparkling blue waters of the Housatonic; and being possessed of the superior intelligence characteristic of all seniors, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

TO:—

Mr. Strout: A tube of ski wax and two barrel staves.

Mr. Hennessey: A sluice pan.

Dr. Van Dusen: A report on the atomic radioactivity of the isotopic cyclotron in words of one syllable.

Mr. Fox: A Toni Home Permanent set.

Mr. Gorman: A canary that whistles with an English accent.

Mr. Geary: A year's supply of Absorbine, Jr. and a box of Smith Bros. cough drops.

Mr. Murphy: Roller skates with which to chase students racing to their lockers.

Mr. Conroy: Squatter's right to the west branch of the Housatonic River.

Mr. Kriger: A palmolive laugh meter.

Mr. Lynch: A complete set of Tom Swift stories.

Mr. Innis: A lebenty-leben cent raise.

Mr. Herberg: A year's subscription to Bugs Bunny.

Mr. Massimiano: One dozen bean shooters for his rifle team.

Mr. Carmody: A megaphone.

Mr. Leahy: Elevator shoes.

Mr. Davison: An elementary chemistry set.

Mr. Sheridan: A Lincoln log set.

Miss Madden: A year's supply of chopsticks for the cafeteria.

Miss Hutchison: A pool table for the library.

Miss Casey: A carton of double bubble gum.

Mr. Stewart: A coonskin cap and a Kentucky long rifle.

Miss Kaliher: A sewing kit for her sewing lessons.

Miss Millet: An album of Spike Jones.

Girls' Glee Club: The booming baritone voice of Mr. Innis.

Boys' Glee Club: One ton of bird seed.

The Janitors: A year's subscription to "Better Homes and Gardens".

Sophomores: Well, they need so much their case seems hopeless.

Juniors: Some small measure of our ineffable conceit.

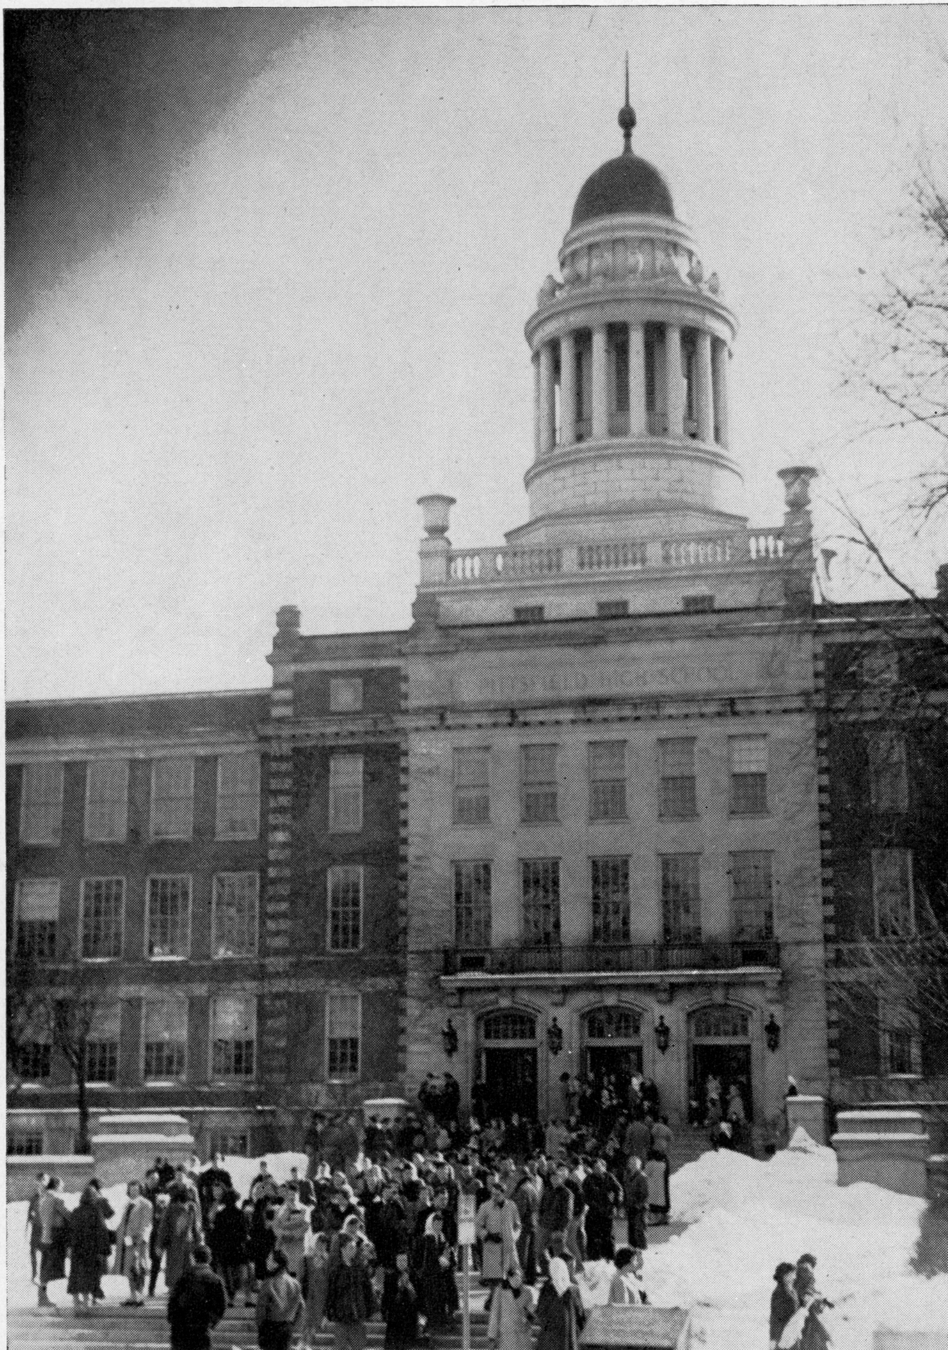

In testimony whereof, we, the '49ers, do hereby place our mark with the fervent hope that future generations will be inspired by the fact that if we can graduate, anybody can.

1949 Goes To The Polls

Junior Election

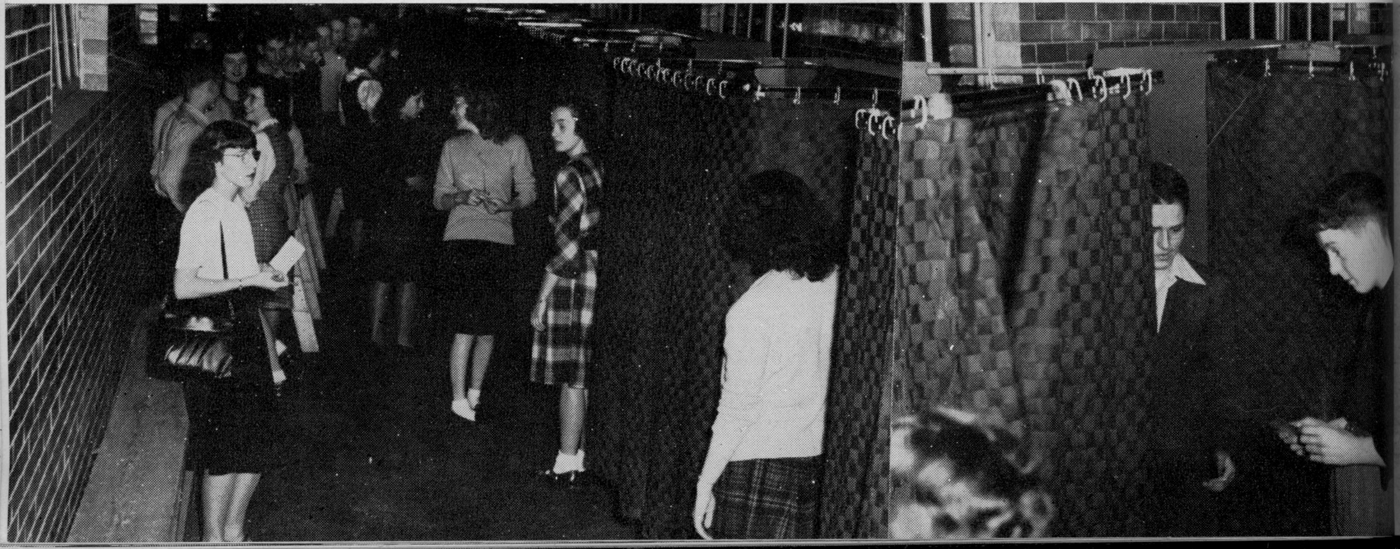

ON October 21, 1948 the "49ers" proved themselves excellent prospects for future Pittsfield voters by efficiently using the city voting machines in electing the following candidates in the primary Junior elections: President, Paul Bousquet and Anthony Sacchetti; Girl Vice President, Ella Dicenzo and Anne Bossidy; Boy Vice President, William Stumpek and Edward Grady; Secretary, Helen Giftos and Virginia Pratt; Treasurer, Nancy Knoblock and Vivian Traversa.

The winners by very small margins were Anthony Sacchetti, Anne Bossidy, Edward Grady, Virginia Pratt, and Vivian Traversa.

Senior Election

EXPERIENCED in the art of operating the city voting machines, the 49ers went again to the polls in October, 1948, in the primary Senior election. The two vice presidents were the only candidates who had opposition. William Quadrozzi ran against Edward Grady, and Irene Zajchowski against Anne Bossidy.

Junior Prom

ON May 21, 1948, the "49ers" presented the Annual Junior Prom under the direction of prom chairmen, Norma Carosso and Paul Bousquet.

The music committee, under Louis Marchetti's leadership, secured Sammy Vincent's orchestra for dancing.

Newcomers to our school and faculty were cordially welcomed and introduced to Mr. Strout and the faculty by Connie Douilett and her reception committee.

The decorating committee, with John Coughlin as its chairman, really transformed the gym. The outstanding feature was the two parachutes, hung high above the dancers, with lights shining through them.

Chairmen of other committees who helped to make the prom a success were: Nancy Knoblock, programs; Verne Goodwin and Mary Delaney, tickets; Charles Brownlee, checking; Joan Sullivan, refreshments; Katharine Nicola, invitations; Diana Fink, publicity; Russell Peaslee, house.

We "49ers" extend our sincerest thanks to all who made this event so very enjoyable.

Christmas, 1948

CHRISTMAS, 1948, saw representatives of the Senior Class erecting a ten-foot evergreen in the high school lobby to make gay the holiday season. The highly decorative tree, its boughs laden with shining ornaments and its base surrounded with brightly-wrapped packages, caught the fancy of students and teachers alike. It was encircled by a small white picket fence, designed, no doubt, to keep meddling sophomores at a reasonable distance. The presence of the tree brightened the pre-Christmas week, and everyone felt more strongly the spirit of the season because the tree shone forth so beautifully. Responsible for the project were the following: Elaine Paduano, William Thompson, co-chairmen; and Ella Dicenzo, Jacqueline Ferguson, Phyllis Lisi, Ann Cooney, Martha Ransford, Claire Hurley, Edward Grady, Alfred Uhlig, Russell Peaslee, and William Stumpek.

"THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE"
Cast and Chorus

The Operetta

IN their long, adventurous journey toward the "bonanza", the "49ers", on February 10 and 11 encountered some pirates, "The Pirates of Penzance," directed as usual by Mr. F. Carl Gorman. The parts of the hero and heroine, Frederic and Mabel, were very beautifully sung by two of our ablest 49ers, Robert Perkins and Joan Bates. Other members of the cast who honored our class by their performances were Howard Nonken, who was the very model of a major general; Abraham Alperin, the pirate king; James McGill, Lieutenant Samuel; Mary Delaney, Ruth, the pirate maid-of-all-work. The cast was completed by some of our underclassmates, who certainly aided in making the operetta a success. They were Pomeroy Power as Sergeant of Police; and Beverly Gallagher and June Wooliver as wards of Major General Stanley. The cast was ably assisted by a fine chorus and by our excellent orchestra with Betty Dunn as concertmistress.

Helen Wood and Verne Goodwin, co-chairmen of the operetta, worked tirelessly and because of their efforts and those of Mr. Gorman, Miss Millet and other members of the faculty and student body, the operetta was an event never to be forgotten.

MISS HELEN McNAUGHTON
Coach of Senior Girls' Athletics

Girls' Sports---Class of 1949

IN the field of girls' sports, the Class of 1949 excelled, for it possessed many outstanding and versatile athletes. In their sophomore year the girls defeated strong junior and senior softball teams, and narrowly missed becoming volleyball champions. Since then, they have won the field hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball tournaments for the past two years. Due to the spirit and skill of such prominent athletes as Norma Fitch, Ilene and Irene Zajchowski, Phyllis Lisi, Norma Carosso, Ann Vaughan, Kitty Nicola, Elaine Paduano, Clara Beraldi, and many others, the girls of '49 have established an athletic record of which their class can well be proud.

Young Woman Dies Suddenly At Home

Dolores Goodrow Fails To Rally From Coma

(From Monday's Eagle)

Miss Dolores Goodrow, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goodrow of 595 North Street, died at her home early this morning after doctors had tried for more than an hour to arouse her from a coma into which she fell shortly after midnight.

John Platt of 226 Onota Street, who called on Miss Goodrow last evening, said that twice during his visit, she complained of feeling dizzy. He said she had "not taken anything."

The girl's father said that he found his daughter unconscious outside his bedroom door. He brought her back to consciousness for a short time, he said, but that she soon relapsed into a coma. Doctors Stanley Pekala and E. G. Bagnulo were called and at 1.20 the former asked for the police respirator, which was used without success until 2.20, when the girl was pronounced dead by Dr. Albert C. England, medical examiner.

Capt. Camille L. Marcel and Patrolman Donald F. Kelly assisted the doctors in their attempt to revive the young Newberry clerk.

Native of Pittsfield

Miss Goodrow was born in Pittsfield June 18, 1930, daughter of Clarence Goodrow and Lillian Brown Goodrow. She was a member of St. Stephen's Church. Survivors are her parents and a sister, Helen.

The body rests at the Newton & Barnfather Funeral Home where the funeral will be held Wednesday morning followed with a service at St. Stephen's Church at 10.30. Burial will be in the Pittsfield Cemetery.

Members of the family will meet friends at the funeral home tonight and tomorrow evening from 7 to 9.

Miss Dolores Goodrow

Funeral services for Miss Dolores Goodrow were at 10.30 this morning at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Rev. Ralph H. Hayden, rector, officiated. Bearers were Walter, James, Leonard, Kenneth and George Brown Jr. and Claude Beals. Burial was in the Pittsfield Cemetery.

Inquest Held

Associate Justice Frederick M. Myers of the Central Berkshire District Court held a 45-minute inquest this morning on the sudden death Sept. 28 of Dolores Goodrow, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Goodrow of 595 North Street.

An autopsy has been performed by Dr. Albert C. England and Dr. Alan R. Moritz, the state pathologist. Justice Myers will file his finding with Clerk of Courts Walter F. Tate.
